

Chemical Laboratory Dr. Graser CLG

Schonungen
Test Facility Water

CLG

TEST CERTIFICATE

Regarding the Examination of a Water Treatment Device for the Reduction of Scale Formation on the Basis of DVGW-Worksheet W 512 (Edition September 1996)

The water treatment devices presented by the firm

Pelican Water Technologies, Inc.
3121 Opportunity Court - Suite D
South Daytona, FL 32119

For testing in accordance DVGW-Worksheet W 512 of the model

Pelican NaturSoft NS-3

Have fulfilled the requirements of the DVGW-Worksheet W 512 (Edition Sept. 1996)
“Testing procedure for the evaluation of the effectiveness of water conditioning devices for the diminution of scaling”

(The results of the examination according to DVGW-Worksheet W 512 are documented in a separate test report)

This proof of effectiveness alone as documented with this test certificate is not sufficient to obtain a DVGW Test Mark.

Schonungen, den 10/10/2008

Dr. Barbara Graser

---

The publication of this test report (complete or in part) is only permissible with the expressed permission of the test facility.

The test facility Labor CLG holds an accreditation in accordance with EN ISO 17025:2005 through DAP (German Accreditation System for Testing) DAP-Registration Number: DAP-PL-2806.00. The Labor CLG is a recognized and listed by the StMuGV as a test facility for drinking water und fulfills the requirements of the Drinking Water Ordinance 2001, §15. Dr. Barbara Graser and Dr. Holler are recognized by the Bavarian State Department of Water Management as accredited private experts in the area of self regulation, laboratory management“, according to §1 Nr. 3 VPSW. Furthermore, Dr. Barbara Graser is a publicly appointed and sworn expert by the IHK Wuerzburg and sworn expert for drinking, utility and waste water.